Prayer list to be updated

The need to update the prayer list on page 2, and to better keep it updated, has been recognized by the officers and board of directors. The office manager tries to keep updated on the status of each person listed, but word does not always reach her.

The assistance of our readers is needed. You can help by notifying the MCCSN office to remove your name, or the person's name for whom you've made a prayer request, when the need for prayer has been met. This may be when the person is cancer free, is in remission or has passed away.

The following guideline is to be implemented. In the future, unless notice is received, or it can be otherwise determined, that prayer is still needed, names will be removed after six (6) months.

Please let the office know of anyone whose name should be added or replaced. Everyone's assistance will be appreciated. We know that prayer does help.

Grant me, O Lord, to know what is worth knowing, to love what is worth loving, to praise what delights you most, to value what is precious in your sight, to hate what is offensive to you. Do not let me judge by what I see, nor pass sentence according to what I hear, but to judge rightly between things that differ and above all to search out and to do what pleases you, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
— Thomas A Kempis (1380-1471)

MCCSN Prayer List - please pray for each person listed, their families and friends; your help in keeping MCCSN updated on the status of each one is appreciated.

Fabulous 50's show another success

Speaking on behalf of all the officers and directors, I must share how overwhelmed with appreciation and gratitude we are to ALL involved in the 2010 Fabulous 50s presentation. Not only are we thankful for the $23,000 plus in donations received that will benefit MANY cancer patients, but so very humbled at again being recognized as the recipient of these monies.

Having been entertained for hours on Friday, March 19th, (and hoping no one was watching me or anyone in my group singing along and dancing in our seats!), I cannot fathom all the planning, practicing, and coordinating that went into this production; let alone these wonderful people literally donating a week plus of their lives for this show.

I can only say that if you have never attended the Fabulous 50s, you have missed one of the best evenings of entertainment you will witness in your lifetime! And next year be looking in the newsletter for the dates for Fabulous 50s, get your tickets and ENJOY!

– Cile Alexander

Notes of appreciation

I just wanted to say thank you for everything you have done for my family and me. Your kindness will not be forgotten!!

Penny Barnes & family

Words cannot express our gratitude for the help you provided when our mom was diagnosed with lung cancer. She fought a hard battle for the past year and lost it on Sunday morning – April 18th. We have requested donations to your organization in lieu of flowers. God Bless you all!

Daughters of Barbara Doreen Sullivan

Thank you for all your kindness over the last four years.

Art Show was wonderful

On the 9th of April, the Women Artists 4 Women held their Think Pink Art Show at the Motlow Community College Art Gallery. This year these beautiful and talented women honored MCCSN as the recipient of all proceeds from the show. MCCSN has already received approximately $1,000, with money still coming. And what a treat! Those attending could purchase prints of several of the paintings and a copy of the 'Think Pink' poster. The real treat for those of us not blessed with their talent was seeing the different ideas these women had when they could paint whatever came to mind, BUT with something in the painting being pink. There are three (3) prints to choose from. One print is a drawing of the late Regina Peacock who passed away last year as the result of breast cancer. Another print is a Peacock (Regina's last name) with a lovely pink hibiscus-type flower. The third print is the women's collaborative drawing, which is absolutely amazing! If you did not have the opportunity to come to the showing, the paintings are still on display at Motlow through the first week of May. In addition, the prints and posters are at our office in Tullahoma. Cost for the prints is $15.00 each, with the posters selling for $10.00 each.

Also, during the art show, we had the drawing for that beautiful antique quilt donated by Doug Grant. And believe it or not, the Motlow Art Director drew Janet Torstenson's name out of the bowl! This MCCSN director is one lucky woman! Janet can now sit in her easy chair, wrapped up in her lovely quilt while admiring the prints she purchased from the art show.

To all the artists, all those who attended the show, all that bought prints or chances on the quilt, MCCSN thanks you for your continued support. This organization is so blessed by you, and because of your financial support can in turn lend financial assistance to cancer patients. Thank you again! Cile
