A special thanks to everyone involved with the Fabulous 50s presentation

MCCSN President Cile Alexander expresses appreciation

Letter to Editor of Elk Valley Times reprinted here

The 25th Anniversary of the Fabulous 50s show, March 15th through 26th, was undoubtedly the BEST yet! As a matter of fact, a dear friend of mine had never heard of the Fabulous 50s show, but after attending at the March 19th show, said she has been to every TPAC show in Nashville, but this show topped them all!!!

It goes without saying that everyone involved with MCCSN continues to be so impressed with the talent of the actors and musicians, the writing and production talents, the 'behind the scenes' people, and everyone else that has a part in this excellent presentation. Together their contributions make this show awesome! And while we continue to remember and talk about this fabulous show for months and months to come, MCCSN will NEVER forget the generosity shown through the donation of proceeds from the show, as we continue to financially assist cancer patients.

The directors and officers of MCCSN wish we could personally thank each and everyone involved in this grand production and let them know just how much we appreciate their efforts and sharing these funds, because these monies go a long, long way in providing financial support for cancer patients and their families in Lincoln, Moore, Bedford, Coffee, Franklin, Grundy, Marion and Warren counties.

Because MCCSN is not affiliated in any way with a national cancer organization, we rely solely on donations and contributions from fundraisers such as Fabulous 50s, and donations or memorials from individuals and local businesses.

In closing, thank you does not come close to conveying our gratitude for making Multi-County Cancer Support Network worthy of your financial support.

Cile Alexander
President

A special message

for all our readers who are mothers

A Very Happy Mother's Day

May 8, 2011

Whether she answers to Mom, Ma, Mother or other, she is to each of her children as no other.

Always loving,
always sharing,
always nurturing
and forever caring.

Mother's Day in May - set aside to remember,
but let her know you care
January through December.

- Ann Powell

MCCSN wishes you

A Happy and Safe Memorial Day

Monday, May 30, 2011
(observed)

While enjoying family, friends, fun events and beautiful spring days, remember to stop and reflect on what the day is really all about – paying respect to departed loved ones and especially those who gave their all helping to preserve the liberties we Americans enjoy.

Thanks from MCCSN

The response to the request for reading the newsletter on the website

– www.mccsn.org –

has been very good, but we know there are many, many more computer savvy readers out there who are yet to be heard from! Call Carla at the office, give her your e-mail address. She will send you a reminder notice each month when the newsletter has been posted to the website.

MCCSN is happy to provide the newsletter whether in the above manner or a hard copy through regular mail; however, this does save resources that can then be used for clients needing assistance.

If you have Internet access, why not go to the website now – try it – we believe you will prefer that method!

What is life?

Life is a gift, accept it.
Life is an adventure, dare it.
Life is a mystery, unfold it.
Life is a game, play it.
Life is a struggle, face it.
Life is beauty, praise it.
Life is a puzzle, solve it.
Life is opportunity, take it.
Life is sorrowful, experience it.
Life is a song, sing it.
Life is a goal, achieve it.
Life is a mission, fulfill it.
